

OUTSIDE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

Washington.—Carrying $267,597,000, general army appropriation bill was reported to both branches of congress by house-senate conference.

Seymour, Tex.—Stephen Brown, a negro, who killed Sheriff Ellis late yesterday, was killed by posse few hours later.

Saginaw, Mich. — Private James Josswick of Saginaw, 33d Mich. regiment, killed; Corporal Wm. Adsit of same company injured, when they were run down by interurban car.

New York.—Geo. Considine, prominent in sporting and theatrical affairs, died after operation for mastoiditis.

Buenos Aires. — Long-term contracts closed by which United Press service is extended to South America, with principal headquarters in office of La Nacion, South America's greatest newspaper.

New York.—Organization of Success Film Corporation, said to be capitalized at $7,500,000, announced here today. New company will build large theater here and in number of western cities.

New York.—Mrs. C. G. Buggs has organized a "sunset club," whose members must be at least 60 and anxious to learn to tango. Branches are to be established throughout the country.

New York.—Prison sentence does not begin when imposed, but day it starts, Justice Thompson ruled.

New York.—Drink checks and hotel register got divorce for Mrs. Andres P. from Arthur Robinson, a wealthy broker.

Binghamton, N. Y.—Thinking he had a "bite," Bruce Chase, wealthy Pennsylvanian, jerked in his line and a bullet pierced his brain, killing him. Line had become tangled in trigger of rifle on the bank.

London.—Lord Wimborne, former lord lieutenant of Ireland, reappointed to that position.

Cleveland.—Funny quip on marital life by Dr. J. C. Massee, occupying pulpit of Rockefeller's church, made John D. laugh.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—Man believed responsible for recent burglaries at mansions of wealthy residents of Rhinebeck shot in woods on Vincent Astor's estate. May die.

Rome.—Pope sent protest to kaiser against deportation of girls and women from occupied regions of France.

Dayton, O.—Eight persons injured when Rex Rosichan, 17, lost control of auto. Bee stung him in eye.

New York.—Officials puzzled over two serious fires on dreadnaught Oklahoma and battleship Maine.

66 WET VIOLATIONS REPORTED

Sixty-six saloonkeepers were reported to Deputy Chief Schuettler as having sold liquor yesterday. Most of the violations were on the South and Southwest Sides, in parts where the foreign population is heaviest. It is probable that many license revocations will follow.

BITS OF NEWS

Mrs. Adeleine Baney, 5776 Ridge av., lost lavalliere worth $1,000 on Milwaukee Electric car.

Jos. Nalaskowski, 1635 N. Lincoln, killed in auto accident near Mount Clemens, Mich.

Miscellaneous Scores

Commercial 13, Ft. Dearborn 4.
Englewood 9, University 2.
Imperial 5, Commercial 0.
Maplewood 12, Douglas Park 5.
Holy Name 5, St. Clement 0.
Lake 8, Apollo 7.
Steger 6, Blue Island 4.
Kucera Colts 6, Dollen Colts 4.
Crimm A. C. 4, Violets 4.
McInernys 11, Trojans 7.
Northern Lights 22, Humboldt 5.
Federal Life 6, Harvey 1.
Stores A. A. 2, Minor A. C. 1.